P.C. :

. At the hearing of the Appeal, the Court has been informed by Counsel appearing on behalf of the contesting parties that it is not necessary for the Court to enquire into the correctness of the order passed by the Company Law Board since the parties have arrived at a working arrangement which is reflected in the consent minutes of the order tendered before the Court. The consent minutes signed by the respective Advocates are taken on record and marked as "X".

2. The Company Appeal shall accordingly disposed of in terms thereof.
